Officer Guy:

Good afternoon. Pursuant to our telephone conversation on March 24, 2017, I'm writing to confirm that you have no opposition to Mr. Thoreson's supervised release being terminated early.

It is my understanding, based on our conversation, that Mr. Thoreson consistently reported to you on time, completed a drug and alcohol program, passed all drug screens, and timely completed all the special conditions of his supervised release. As a result of his diligent efforts, Mr. Thoreson was identified as a low-risk offender and placed on administrative supervision.

Please respond back to this email confirming that all of the above-mentioned information is correct and that you do not oppose our petition to terminate Mr. Thoreson's supervised release.

Thank you very much for you time.

Sincerely,

Marc D. Robinson, Esq.
